PEOPLE CATEGORIES

AGENCY HEAD

The award recognizes the heads of agencies nationally who have individually done the most to advance their agency/network in the industry. Judges will consider the individual's achievements during the eligibility period, including achievement against objectives, size of local operation, client profile and disciplines, new business wins, client retention, personal involvement in staff development initiatives, innovation with results, agency/network development and contribution to the role or image of the marketing communications industry in their market.

ACCOUNT PERSON

The award recognizes professionals responsible for the account management of a single office (or multiple offices in the same region), who have displayed the most innovation, skills and enthusiasm in bringing the benefits of advertising to their clients' businesses resulting in the development of solid business relationships. Judges will consider contribution to the agency and clients, client relationship management, client retention as well as new business wins and positive organic growth for clients.

CREATIVE PERSON

The award recognizes creative directors who have produced the best work for an individual office (or multiple offices in the same region) during the review period and have not only set the standard for creative excellence but have also raised the bar for innovation and disruptive big ideas. Judges will consider recognition received at the major recognized award shows and — if they are in a senior leadership role - the individual's contribution to staff development initiatives, particularly their involvement in nurturing young talent, and how their work has contributed to the role or image of advertising in the region. Samples of the nominee's work will be required as support materials.
